

Close Outs

AT

E. G. LOOMIS' BOOK STORE

For the next 10 days I will offer my entire line of Oxfords Bible, Family Bibles, and Testaments at less cost

10c Pocket Bibles go for....20c
 $1.25 Bibles, large print go for 75c
 11 Testaments and Psalms go for.....60c
 14 Family Bibles go for....$2.50

HAMMOCKS
 Your choice for 50 cents each

CROQUETS
 ball sets for.....42c
 ball sets for.....58c
 ball sets for.....68c

Now is your chance.
 Call and look through.

E. G. LOOMIS

LOCAL SHORT-STOPPS.

Mr. Allie Utter returned Wednesday from Kansas City.

Mr. James Kelley came down from Kansas City Tuesday.

Miss May and Alice Paak left Wednesday morning for McAlester Springs.

Mr. Geo. Cleary, of Norborn, Mo., is visiting Mr. Lillburn Cole of our city.

Miss Irene Tutt, of Kansas City, is visiting the family of Mr. E. G. Loomis.

Mr. T. B. Ramsey left Wednesday for the visitors to the Springfield reunion.

Mr. Charles Guenther returned Thursday evening from a five weeks trip in Colorado.

Mr. E. J. McGrew left Thursday for St. Louis to visit Mrs. Emlison Ansler.

Miss Edna Rinehart, of Higginsville, came up Tuesday to visit Miss Elliott Hunter.

Mr. Claude Johnson will return next week from a visit of several months to Colorado points.

Mr. Isy Gratz returned Wednesday from Ada, Mo., where he has been on a business trip.

Mr. C. L. McLaughlin went to Liberty Friday evening to look up some walnut trees for shipment.

Mr. A. A. Walker, of Pleasant Green, arrived Wednesday evening for a visit with Mrs. E. N. Hopkins.

Mr. Geo. W. Stier returned Friday morning from Hot Springs, Ark., where he has been spending several weeks.

Mr. Geo. McGrew, who was in our city Tuesday visiting relatives, returned to St. Louis that night.

Mr. Lee Slusher left Wednesday for Springfield, where he goes to attend the confederate reunion this week.

Mr. Tom James, who has been spending several weeks at McAlester Springs, returned to Lexington Tuesday evening.

At the meeting of the public school board Wednesday night Miss Florence Hill was elected substitute teacher.

Miss Myrtle and Flora Llewellyn returned Wednesday from a couple of days visit with friends in Kansas City.

The South Street base ball team defeated the Wellington Spiders Tuesday evening by the score of 9 to 0.

Mr. G. A. Gigas, of Marshall, and his wife, Miss Baker, came up Thursday to visit Mr. Wm. Bannon's family.

Mr. W. E. Bard, of Sedalia, accompanied by Baby Estelle McGrew Duval, arrived Thursday morning for a visit with relatives in our city.

Mr. T. B. Saunders and daughter, Miss Lillian Saunders, returned Thursday to Kansas City, after a few days visit with relatives in our city.

Miss Puss McMurry, who has been visiting the family of Mr. J. G. Worthington for the past few days, returned yesterday morning to Buckner.

Dr. Charles Manly returned Wednesday from Warrensburg, having been called back to Lexington to preach the funeral of Miss Josephine Edwards.

Miss Jessie Bell, of Tampa, Fla., spent Saturday in our city, the guest of the family of Mr. Dick Hays. She returned to Kansas City on the 5:11 p. m. train.

Mr. S. E. James, of St. Louis, who has been spending several months in our city, went to Higginsville Thursday for a brief visit before returning home.

The Methodist Sunday school children had a picnic Thursday at Mr. Young's farm, east of town on the Lexington road, and all had a delightful time.

Mr. Tom Crenshaw and wife and baby came down from Kansas City Tuesday to visit the family of Mr. Crenshaw's father.

Miss Mattie Mead, who has been visiting Mrs. John Young, Jr., for a few days, returned home Friday morning to Slater.

Mrs. Mary Withers, of Mayview, arrived in our city Tuesday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. G. Worthington.

Mr. Evan Young who has been spending a few days with relatives in our city, returned to Kansas City Tuesday evening.

Mr. N. M. Cooper, of Higginsville, passed through Lexington Wednesday on his way to the confederate reunion at Springfield.

Mrs. J. A. Robinson, of Kansas City, who has been spending the past week with Mrs. C. O. Grimes, returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. Geo. Packler, of Kansas City, and Miss Puss McMurry, of Buckner, arrived Tuesday to visit the family of Mr. J. G. Worthington.

Mr. B. B. Frazer went to Kansas City Wednesday to look up the cattle market with a view to buying some feeders if the market suits him.

Master Melville Smithers, who has been visiting the family of Mr. Thos. Stramcke, returned Thursday to his home in St. Louis.

Mrs. Geo. Temple, who has been visiting the family of Dr. Payne for several weeks, returned Wednesday to her home at Joplin, Mo.

Mrs. Virginia Cooper, mother of Mr. G. R. Cooper, of Kansas City, arrived Wednesday for a visit with the family of Hon. H. C. Wallace.

Miss Thillie Stoler and sister, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Figer, of this city, returned Friday morning to their home in Marshall.

Misses Hattie and Blair Gordon left Thursday for a visit in Higginsville, and from there they go to Fulton, Mo., for a visit with friends.

Mr. Edgar Spurgeon, who has been visiting his wife and relatives here for a few days, returned Friday morning to his home at Sweet Springs.

Mrs. Virginia Cooper, who has been spending a couple of days visiting the family of Hon. H. C. Wallace, returned to Kansas City Thursday.

Mr. Will Green, who has been spending a few days here with the family of his father, Mr. James Green, returned Thursday evening to Kansas City.

Misses Nellie and Belle Edmonds, who came down from Waterloo to attend the funeral of Miss Josephine Edmonds, returned home Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McGrew and Mr. J. C. McGrew, Jr., returned Thursday evening from their trip to Colorado Springs and other points of interest in the west.

Mrs. V. J. Willett and her two children came in Thursday from their home at Harrisonville, Mo., to visit the family of Rev. Xen. Ryland, Mrs. Willett's father.

Mrs. Fred Hix and little daughter, Miss Blanche Hix, returned Wednesday evening from Georgetown, Ky., where they have been visiting relatives for the past six weeks.

Mr. D. A. Hancock, of Blackburn, Mo., spent Wednesday in our city on business and left Thursday for Kansas City.

Mr. Hancock has a lot of cattle which he is feeding in Nebraska.

Mrs. W. E. Comstock, accompanied by her children, Misses Gladys, Catherine and Grace, came down from Kansas City Wednesday to spend a few weeks with the family of Mr. Wm. H. Chiles.

Capt. J. Q. Plattenburg, Dr. J. W. Meng and Mr. Ben Stevenson left Wednesday evening for Springfield, to attend the confederate reunion and the unveiling of the confederate monument.

Mrs. Lena Rehmeyer, who shot her husband on the morning of August 1st, near Higginsville, was brought before the county court in session here Wednesday, adjudged insane and ordered sent to asylum No. 3, at Nevada.

Mr. John Craig met with quite a painful accident while working Monday at the home of Mr. Fred Hix in College place. In lifting a large ice chest he wrenched his back and is now confined to the house in consequence.

Miss Susie Crenshaw, of San Diego, Cal., arrived Wednesday for a visit with the family of her brother, Mr. T. C. Crenshaw. She is on her way home from Nashville, Tenn., and is accompanied by Master MacLin Benagh, of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Young and wife and little son, of Quitman, Nodaway county, Mo., visited the family of Mrs. Emma Young Tuesday and left Wednesday to visit relatives at Dover. Mr. Young is a brother of Mr. Tom Young, deceased.

Mr. J. F. Winn, of Dover, passed through Lexington Thursday on his way home from Lawton, where he went to look up the prospect of buying some town lots. The lots are being sold so slowly that he did not stay to the end of the sale.

STOPS THE COUGH AND WORKS OFF THE COLD.
 Laxative Bromo-Quinine tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure, no pay. Price 25 cents.

Grand Clearance Sale

AT DONIE WEBER'S

FOR TEN DAYS

Commencing Saturday, August 10

All goods go at Cost or Less and none held in reserve.

This Means Every Piece of Goods in Stock.

Remember good things go quickly so don't delay.

John Deere Plows and Hoosier Grain Drills have imitators but no equals. E. W. Kruse, agent, Higginsville, Mo. 8-1014

The Enterprise Implement and feed store sells the best that money can buy. Ed. W. Kruse, Higginsville, Mo. 8-1014

Messrs. J. R. Dryer, Alfred Elenman, Frank R. Mattox and Silas Woodruff left Wednesday for Salina, Kas., to look after the wheat threshing prospect in that vicinity. Later they may take a threshing machine to that section if the prospect seems to warrant it.

Mrs. Virginia Voorheis, of Union City, Tenn., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Minnie, arrived in our city Thursday evening and is visiting Mrs. George W. Johnson at her pleasant suburban home. Miss Truheart White, of Dover is also visiting Mrs. Johnson, her sister.

Misses Elliott Todhunter, Edna Rinehart and Mary Graves, accompanied by Mrs. S. N. Wilson, as chaperon, left Wednesday for Springfield to attend the confederate reunion and participate in the exercises attending the unveiling of the confederate monument.

Col. Ryland Todhunter, Capt. J. J. Fulkerson and Hon. Alex Graves left Wednesday to attend the confederate reunion at Springfield and to meet their old comrades in arms who were the gray and live over again, in memory, the stirring times of the civil war.

Misses Bernice and Lillian Cromwell, of Kansas City, came Wednesday night to visit Misses Nannie, Bettie and Pinkie Chinn. Accompanied by Mr. Buford Chinn they left Thursday morning for McAlester Springs, where Mr. Chinn has taken a cottage for several weeks.

Piles are not only is, and of themselves very painful and annoying, but often greatly aggravate and even cause other grave and painful affections, and should therefore not be neglected. Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment is a great boon to sufferers as it will cure them. Price, 50 cents in bottles. Tubes, 75 cents. For sale by Crenshaw & Young. 8-3ml

Mr. W. E. Winner was in our city Wednesday evening and spent the night at Mrs. Nickell's Home, returning to Kansas City Thursday. In company with Capt. Joe Wilson he drove Wednesday over the route from Odessa and Mayview to this city, making observations as to the physical nature of the land on the route.

Prof. J. T. Pritchett, formerly of the faculty of Central Female college at this place, but more recently engaged in school work at Martin, Tenn., arrived in our city Thursday evening for a brief visit with old Lexington friends. He has accepted the presidency of Scarritt Institute at Nashville, Mo., and will leave for that place soon.

Mr. Clem Bledsoe came in Thursday from San Francisco, Cal. His wife went to Glasgow to visit relatives for a while and his mother, Mrs. M. E. Bledsoe, went to Pleasant Hill, Mo., for a visit. Mr. Bledsoe is satisfied that Missouri and Lafayette county particularly is about the best place on earth, and he will locate somewhere in Missouri.

The Higginsville Oil company has been incorporated with a capital stock of $100,000, and they received their final papers of incorporation from the state department Thursday. J. H. Burgen is president, Joe Lane, secretary and Theodore Young, treasurer. They have already been successful to the extent of getting gas in some of their wells and are making arrangements to supply the city with it.

The Commercial bank of this city bought Wednesday night at the meeting of the school board of the Lexington district the $22,000 of bonds that the board offered for sale. The bonds are to bear 4 per cent interest and the bank paid a premium of $300. They are twenty year bonds, $10,000 of the issue being redeemable in five years and $12,000 in nine years, at the option of the school board. The sale is a good one and the work of building the new school will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

Mr. Tom Crenshaw and wife and baby came down from Kansas City Tuesday to visit the family of Mr. Crenshaw's father.

Miss Mattie Mead, who has been visiting Mrs. John Young, Jr., for a few days, returned home Friday morning to Slater.

Mrs. Mary Withers, of Mayview, arrived in our city Tuesday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. G. Worthington.

Mr. Evan Young who has been spending a few days with relatives in our city, returned to Kansas City Tuesday evening.

Mr. N. M. Cooper, of Higginsville, passed through Lexington Wednesday on his way to the confederate reunion at Springfield.

Mrs. J. A. Robinson, of Kansas City, who has been spending the past week with Mrs. C. O. Grimes, returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. Geo. Packler, of Kansas City, and Miss Puss McMurry, of Buckner, arrived Tuesday to visit the family of Mr. J. G. Worthington.

Mr. B. B. Frazer went to Kansas City Wednesday to look up the cattle market with a view to buying some feeders if the market suits him.

Master Melville Smithers, who has been visiting the family of Mr. Thos. Stramcke, returned Thursday to his home in St. Louis.

Mrs. Geo. Temple, who has been visiting the family of Dr. Payne for several weeks, returned Wednesday to her home at Joplin, Mo.

Mrs. Virginia Cooper, mother of Mr. G. R. Cooper, of Kansas City, arrived Wednesday for a visit with the family of Hon. H. C. Wallace.

Miss Thillie Stoler and sister, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Figer, of this city, returned Friday morning to their home in Marshall.

Misses Hattie and Blair Gordon left Thursday for a visit in Higginsville, and from there they go to Fulton, Mo., for a visit with friends.

Mr. Edgar Spurgeon, who has been visiting his wife and relatives here for a few days, returned Friday morning to his home at Sweet Springs.

Mrs. Virginia Cooper, who has been spending a couple of days visiting the family of Hon. H. C. Wallace, returned to Kansas City Thursday.

Mr. Will Green, who has been spending a few days here with the family of his father, Mr. James Green, returned Thursday evening to Kansas City.

Misses Nellie and Belle Edmonds, who came down from Waterloo to attend the funeral of Miss Josephine Edmonds, returned home Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McGrew and Mr. J. C. McGrew, Jr., returned Thursday evening from their trip to Colorado Springs and other points of interest in the west.

Mrs. V. J. Willett and her two children came in Thursday from their home at Harrisonville, Mo., to visit the family of Rev. Xen. Ryland, Mrs. Willett's father.

Mrs. Fred Hix and little daughter, Miss Blanche Hix, returned Wednesday evening from Georgetown, Ky., where they have been visiting relatives for the past six weeks.

Mr. D. A. Hancock, of Blackburn, Mo., spent Wednesday in our city on business and left Thursday for Kansas City.

Mr. Hancock has a lot of cattle which he is feeding in Nebraska.

Mrs. W. E. Comstock, accompanied by her children, Misses Gladys, Catherine and Grace, came down from Kansas City Wednesday to spend a few weeks with the family of Mr. Wm. H. Chiles.

Capt. J. Q. Plattenburg, Dr. J. W. Meng and Mr. Ben Stevenson left Wednesday evening for Springfield, to attend the confederate reunion and the unveiling of the confederate monument.

Mrs. Lena Rehmeyer, who shot her husband on the morning of August 1st, near Higginsville, was brought before the county court in session here Wednesday, adjudged insane and ordered sent to asylum No. 3, at Nevada.

Mr. John Craig met with quite a painful accident while working Monday at the home of Mr. Fred Hix in College place. In lifting a large ice chest he wrenched his back and is now confined to the house in consequence.

Miss Susie Crenshaw, of San Diego, Cal., arrived Wednesday for a visit with the family of her brother, Mr. T. C. Crenshaw. She is on her way home from Nashville, Tenn., and is accompanied by Master MacLin Benagh, of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Young and wife and little son, of Quitman, Nodaway county, Mo., visited the family of Mrs. Emma Young Tuesday and left Wednesday to visit relatives at Dover. Mr. Young is a brother of Mr. Tom Young, deceased.

Mr. Tom Crenshaw and wife and baby came down from Kansas City Tuesday to visit the family of Mr. Crenshaw's father.

Miss Mattie Mead, who has been visiting Mrs. John Young, Jr., for a few days, returned home Friday morning to Slater.

Mrs. Mary Withers, of Mayview, arrived in our city Tuesday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. G. Worthington.

Mr. Evan Young who has been spending a few days with relatives in our city, returned to Kansas City Tuesday evening.

Mr. N. M. Cooper, of Higginsville, passed through Lexington Wednesday on his way to the confederate reunion at Springfield.

Mrs. J. A. Robinson, of Kansas City, who has been spending the past week with Mrs. C. O. Grimes, returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. Geo. Packler, of Kansas City, and Miss Puss McMurry, of Buckner, arrived Tuesday to visit the family of Mr. J. G. Worthington.

Mr. B. B. Frazer went to Kansas City Wednesday to look up the cattle market with a view to buying some feeders if the market suits him.

Master Melville Smithers, who has been visiting the family of Mr. Thos. Stramcke, returned Thursday to his home in St. Louis.

Mrs. Geo. Temple, who has been visiting the family of Dr. Payne for several weeks, returned Wednesday to her home at Joplin, Mo.

Mrs. Virginia Cooper, mother of Mr. G. R. Cooper, of Kansas City, arrived Wednesday for a visit with the family of Hon. H. C. Wallace.

Miss Thillie Stoler and sister, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Figer, of this city, returned Friday morning to their home in Marshall.

Misses Hattie and Blair Gordon left Thursday for a visit in Higginsville, and from there they go to Fulton, Mo., for a visit with friends.

Mr. Edgar Spurgeon, who has been visiting his wife and relatives here for a few days, returned Friday morning to his home at Sweet Springs.

Mrs. Virginia Cooper, who has been spending a couple of days visiting the family of Hon. H. C. Wallace, returned to Kansas City Thursday.

Mr. Will Green, who has been spending a few days here with the family of his father, Mr. James Green, returned Thursday evening to Kansas City.

Misses Nellie and Belle Edmonds, who came down from Waterloo to attend the funeral of Miss Josephine Edmonds, returned home Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McGrew and Mr. J. C. McGrew, Jr., returned Thursday evening from their trip to Colorado Springs and other points of interest in the west.

Mrs. V. J. Willett and her two children came in Thursday from their home at Harrisonville, Mo., to visit the family of Rev. Xen. Ryland, Mrs. Willett's father.

Mrs. Fred Hix and little daughter, Miss Blanche Hix, returned Wednesday evening from Georgetown, Ky., where they have been visiting relatives for the past six weeks.

Mr. D. A. Hancock, of Blackburn, Mo., spent Wednesday in our city on business and left Thursday for Kansas City.

Mr. Hancock has a lot of cattle which he is feeding in Nebraska.

Mrs. W. E. Comstock, accompanied by her children, Misses Gladys, Catherine and Grace, came down from Kansas City Wednesday to spend a few weeks with the family of Mr. Wm. H. Chiles.

Capt. J. Q. Plattenburg, Dr. J. W. Meng and Mr. Ben Stevenson left Wednesday evening for Springfield, to attend the confederate reunion and the unveiling of the confederate monument.

Mrs. Lena Rehmeyer, who shot her husband on the morning of August 1st, near Higginsville, was brought before the county court in session here Wednesday, adjudged insane and ordered sent to asylum No. 3, at Nevada.

Mr. John Craig met with quite a painful accident while working Monday at the home of Mr. Fred Hix in College place. In lifting a large ice chest he wrenched his back and is now confined to the house in consequence.

Miss Susie Crenshaw, of San Diego, Cal., arrived Wednesday for a visit with the family of her brother, Mr. T. C. Crenshaw. She is on her way home from Nashville, Tenn., and is accompanied by Master MacLin Benagh, of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Young and wife and little son, of Quitman, Nodaway county, Mo., visited the family of Mrs. Emma Young Tuesday and left Wednesday to visit relatives at Dover. Mr. Young is a brother of Mr. Tom Young, deceased.

Mr. Tom Crenshaw and wife and baby came down from Kansas City Tuesday to visit the family of Mr. Crenshaw's father.

Miss Mattie Mead, who has been visiting Mrs. John Young, Jr., for a few days, returned home Friday morning to Slater.

Mrs. Mary Withers, of Mayview, arrived in our city Tuesday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. G. Worthington.

Mr. Evan Young who has been spending a few days with relatives in our city, returned to Kansas City Tuesday evening.

Mr. N. M. Cooper, of Higginsville, passed through Lexington Wednesday on his way to the confederate reunion at Springfield.

Mrs. J. A. Robinson, of Kansas City, who has been spending the past week with Mrs. C. O. Grimes, returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. Geo. Packler, of Kansas City, and Miss Puss McMurry, of Buckner, arrived Tuesday to visit the family of Mr. J. G. Worthington.

Mr. B. B. Frazer went to Kansas City Wednesday to look up the cattle market with a view to buying some feeders if the market suits him.

Master Melville Smithers, who has been visiting the family of Mr. Thos. Stramcke, returned Thursday to his home in St. Louis.

Mrs. Geo. Temple, who has been visiting the family of Dr. Payne for several weeks, returned Wednesday to her home at Joplin, Mo.

Mrs. Virginia Cooper, mother of Mr. G. R. Cooper, of Kansas City, arrived Wednesday for a visit with the family of Hon. H. C. Wallace.

Miss Thillie Stoler and sister, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Figer, of this city, returned Friday morning to their home in Marshall.

Misses Hattie and Blair Gordon left Thursday for a visit in Higginsville, and from there they go to Fulton, Mo., for a visit with friends.

Mr. Edgar Spurgeon, who has been visiting his wife and relatives here for a few days, returned Friday morning to his home at Sweet Springs.

Mrs. Virginia Cooper, who has been spending a couple of days visiting the family of Hon. H. C. Wallace, returned to Kansas City Thursday.

Mr. Will Green, who has been spending a few days here with the family of his father, Mr. James Green, returned Thursday evening to Kansas City.

Misses Nellie and Belle Edmonds, who came down from Waterloo to attend the funeral of Miss Josephine Edmonds, returned home Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McGrew and Mr. J. C. McGrew, Jr., returned Thursday evening from their trip to Colorado Springs and other points of interest in the west.

Mrs. V. J. Willett and her two children came in Thursday from their home at Harrisonville, Mo., to visit the family of Rev. Xen. Ryland, Mrs. Willett's father.

Mrs. Fred Hix and little daughter, Miss Blanche Hix, returned Wednesday evening from Georgetown, Ky., where they have been visiting relatives for the past six weeks.

Mr. D. A. Hancock, of Blackburn, Mo., spent Wednesday in our city on business and left Thursday for Kansas City.

Mr. Hancock has a lot of cattle which he is feeding in Nebraska.

Mrs. W. E. Comstock, accompanied by her children, Misses Gladys, Catherine and Grace, came down from Kansas City Wednesday to spend a few weeks with the family of Mr. Wm. H. Chiles.

Capt. J. Q. Plattenburg, Dr. J. W. Meng and Mr. Ben Stevenson left Wednesday evening for Springfield, to attend the confederate reunion and the unveiling of the confederate monument.

Mrs. Lena Rehmeyer, who shot her husband on the morning of August 1st, near Higginsville, was brought before the county court in session here Wednesday, adjudged insane and ordered sent to asylum No. 3, at Nevada.

Mr. John Craig met with quite a painful accident while working Monday at the home of Mr. Fred Hix in College place. In lifting a large ice chest he wrenched his back and is now confined to the house in consequence.

Miss Susie Crenshaw, of San Diego, Cal., arrived Wednesday for a visit with the family of her brother, Mr. T. C. Crenshaw. She is on her way home from Nashville, Tenn., and is accompanied by Master MacLin Benagh, of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Young and wife and little son, of Quitman, Nodaway county, Mo., visited the family of Mrs. Emma Young Tuesday and left Wednesday to visit relatives at Dover. Mr. Young is a brother of Mr. Tom Young, deceased.

Mr. Tom Crenshaw and wife and baby came down from Kansas City Tuesday to visit the family of Mr. Crenshaw's father.

Miss Mattie Mead, who has been visiting Mrs. John Young, Jr., for a few days, returned home Friday morning to Slater.

Mrs. Mary Withers, of Mayview, arrived in our city Tuesday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. G. Worthington.

Mr. Evan Young who has been spending a few days with relatives in our city, returned to Kansas City Tuesday evening.

Mr. N. M. Cooper, of Higginsville, passed through Lexington Wednesday on his way to the confederate reunion at Springfield.

Mrs. J. A. Robinson, of Kansas City, who has been spending the past week with Mrs. C. O. Grimes, returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. Geo. Packler, of Kansas City, and Miss Puss McMurry, of Buckner, arrived Tuesday to visit the family of Mr. J. G. Worthington.

Mr. B. B. Frazer went to Kansas City Wednesday to look up the cattle market with a view to buying some feeders if the market suits him.

Master Melville Smithers, who has been visiting the family of Mr. Thos. Stramcke, returned Thursday to his home in St. Louis.

Mrs. Geo. Temple, who has been visiting the family of Dr. Payne for several weeks, returned Wednesday to her home at Joplin, Mo.

Mrs. Virginia Cooper, mother of Mr. G. R. Cooper, of Kansas City, arrived Wednesday for a visit with the family of Hon. H. C. Wallace.

Miss Thillie Stoler and sister, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Figer, of this city, returned Friday morning to their home in Marshall.

Misses Hattie and Blair Gordon left Thursday for a visit in Higginsville, and from there they go to Fulton, Mo., for a visit with friends.

Mr. Edgar Spurgeon, who has been visiting his wife and relatives here for a few days, returned Friday morning to his home at Sweet Springs.

Mrs. Virginia Cooper, who has been spending a couple of days visiting the family of Hon. H. C. Wallace, returned to Kansas City Thursday.

Mr. Will Green, who has been spending a few days here with the family of his father, Mr. James Green, returned Thursday evening to Kansas City.

Misses Nellie and Belle Edmonds, who came down from Waterloo to attend the funeral of Miss Josephine Edmonds, returned home Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McGrew and Mr. J. C. McGrew, Jr., returned Thursday evening from their trip to Colorado Springs and other points of interest in the west.

Mrs. V. J. Willett and her two children came in Thursday from their home at Harrisonville, Mo., to visit the family of Rev. Xen. Ryland, Mrs. Willett's father.

Mrs. Fred Hix and little daughter, Miss Blanche Hix, returned Wednesday evening from Georgetown, Ky., where they have been visiting relatives for the past six weeks.

Mr. D. A. Hancock, of Blackburn, Mo., spent Wednesday in our city on business and left Thursday for Kansas City.

Mr. Hancock has a lot of cattle which he is feeding in Nebraska.

Mrs. W. E. Comstock, accompanied by her children, Misses Gladys, Catherine and Grace, came down from Kansas City Wednesday to spend a few weeks with the family of Mr. Wm. H. Chiles.

Capt. J. Q. Plattenburg, Dr. J. W. Meng and Mr. Ben Stevenson left Wednesday evening for Springfield, to attend the confederate reunion and the unveiling of the confederate monument.

Mrs. Lena Rehmeyer, who shot her husband on the morning of August 1st, near Higginsville, was brought before the county court in session here Wednesday, adjudged insane and ordered sent to asylum No. 3, at Nevada.

Mr. John Craig met with quite a painful accident while working Monday at the home of Mr. Fred Hix in College place. In lifting a large ice chest he wrenched his back and is now confined to the house in consequence.

Miss Susie Crenshaw, of San Diego, Cal., arrived Wednesday for a visit with the family of her brother, Mr. T. C. Crenshaw. She is on her way home from Nashville, Tenn., and is accompanied by Master Mac